

TRIPOM (Trainees with an interest in Perioperative Medicine) Annual Conference at EBPOM 2017

Trainees with an Interest in Perioperative Medicine (TRIPOM) are delighted to announce we will be hosting an exciting new collaborative session at the EBPOM (Evidence Based Perioperative Medicine) London Annual Congress. It is taking place on Thursday 6th July at the Institute of Education, London, and involves an action packed afternoon of interactive debates, hot curriculum based topics and CPET brought to life in the highly anticipated 'Gassers vs Slashers'. With contributors including internationally renowned perioperative specialists from a variety of backgrounds, it will not only be an entertaining afternoon for all specialities, but an opportunity to learn from leaders in the field.

Sign up today

There is an exclusive 20% discount for TRIPOM members for ALL DAYS of the EBPOM conference (4-6th July). You can book for any days of the EBPOM conference, or just the TRIPOM afternoon for £25 (choose TRIPOM ½ day/Thursday 14:00-18:00 in drop down menu when booking):

<http://booking.cactus-events.com/product/consultant-clinical-equivalent/>

Sign up as a TRIPOM member on our website (its free!) to receive our exclusive discount code to enter at the ticket checkout. Further information on the programme, speakers and sessions can also be found on our website, along with our up to date educational and training resources.

<http://tripom.squarespace.com/tripom>

Fancy presenting?

Abstract submission is open NOW for the EBPOM congress – a great opportunity to present a poster at an international conference and the chance to win £1000 worth of prizes! But hurry, entry deadline is Wednesday 12th April.

<http://ebpom.org/abstracts>

Many thanks – hope to see you there!

Katie Samuel and Katie Miller– TRIPOM committee