

Cardiovascular Disease in Pregnancy

Awareness Day
Addenbrooke's Hospital Cambridge
Monday 19 June 2017

Aims of the Day:

- ◆ The effects of pregnancy on the normal cardiovascular system
- ◆ The effects of pregnancy on women with pre-existing heart disease
- ◆ The management of pregnancy in women with pre-existing heart disease

The Day will consist of:

- ◆ Lectures from cardiologists, obstetricians and anaesthetists
- ◆ Case based discussions with delegate involvement
- ◆ Patient experiences/perspectives presented by the patients themselves

Suitable for:

- ◆ Hospital consultants and trainees (especially cardiology, acute medicine, obstetrics and anaesthetics)
- ◆ G.P.'s and trainees
- ◆ Cardiac Nurses/Midwives

Attendance cost (including lunch/refreshments)

- ◆ Consultant / G.P. partners £50.00
- ◆ Cardiology/Obstetric/Anaesthetic/GP trainees £30.00
- ◆ Cardiac Nurses/Midwives £20.00

The course has been credited with 5 CPD points from

The Royal College of Physicians

Course Director: Dr Mark Belham

Please make your application online at: www.cam-pgmc.ac.uk

Enquiries Please Contact:-

Angela Gray

Postgraduate Medical Centre

Deakin Centre, Addenbrooke's Hospital Cambridge

Email: ajg203@medschl.cam.ac.uk Tel: 01223 596189