

CORE CARDIOLOGY

Practical approaches to cardiology problems for the non-cardiologist

Date: Friday 17th April, 2020

Venue: Clinical School, Addenbrooke's Hospital Campus, Cambridge

Target audience

Hospital doctors (e.g. Emergency Medicine, Acute Medicine, GIM)
Core/Internal Medical ACCS trainees, Foundation Years
Nurse Practitioners
GPs and GP trainees

Aims & Content

A one-day course, delivered by cardiologists, focusing on:

Approaches to common presentations: chest pain, breathlessness, palpitations, syncope
ECG interpretation
Case-based teaching
Refresher on up-to-date guidelines
When to refer for specialist advice

Registration & Further Information

Cost (including lunch and refreshments):	'Early Bird' rate	Bookings after Feb 28th, 2020
Consultant/GP Partners	£95	£150
Trainees, students, ANPs	£75	£110

Register via: www.cam-pgmc.ac.uk

Course Organiser: Dr James Cranley

Course Director: Dr Simon Fynn

Enquiries

Angela Gray (Postgraduate Medical Centre)

Email: ajg203@medschl.cam.ac.uk:

Tel: 01223 596189