

Educational Leadership Development Day – From Leaders to Leadership

Wednesday 1 February 2017

Cambridge Belfry, Back Lane, Cambourne, CB23 6BW

Programme:

		Facilitator(s)
09:00	Welcome and Orientation – Leadership theory & leadership practice	Alys Burns, Clare Morris
09:45	Leading with a Moral Purpose – Interview with an educational leader	Clare Morris, Rob Robson
10:45	Refreshment break
11:15	Should Education be Fun? – A games-based approach to medical education. Exploring professional values and behaviours.	Phil Davies
12:45	Lunch
13:45 – 16:30	Rotating Workshops: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coaching Conversational Skills & Resources for Leadership Development • Authentic Leadership • Learning to Lead Please see information on reverse for specific details and timings	Karen Bloomfield, Erika Denton, Clare Morris,
16:30	Final Plenary and Evaluation	Alys Burns
17:00	Close

Workshop Timetable:

Please refer to the colour on your name badge to find out your workshop rotation. There will be a 15 minute refreshment break between each workshop.

	13:45 -14:30	14:45 – 15:30	15:45 – 16:30
Coaching Conversational Skills & Resources for Leadership Development, Karen Bloomfield	Red	Green	Yellow
Authentic Leadership, Erika Denton	Yellow	Red	Green
Learning to Lead, Clare Morris	Green	Yellow	Red

Facilitators:

- Alys Burns – Deputy Postgraduate Dean, Health Education England East
- Clare Morris – Reader in Medical Education, Research and Development, Institute of Health Sciences Education, Barts and the London School of Medicine and Dentistry, QMUL.
- Erika Denton – Associate Medical Director, Honorary Professor of Radiology, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital
- Karen Bloomfield – Head of Leadership and Organisational Development, Health Education England East of England
- Rob Robson – Director of RobsonKing, Former Executive Principal, Bedfordshire East Multi-Academy Trust
- Phil Davies – Dean Gloucestershire Academy, Consultant in Emergency Medicine