

RESEARCH SKILLS FOR CLINICIAN COURSE

A COURSE FOR MEDICAL TRAINEES IN THE EAST OF ENGLAND

19 & 20 January 2019 at the Møller Centre, Churchill College, Cambridge

A weekend course covering:

- The principles and processes of clinical research
- Research questions and study design
- Statistical considerations in clinical research
- Key concepts in research ethics
- Writing and presenting a scientific paper / poster
- Integrating clinical research into a clinical career

There will also be opportunities to talk to high calibre research clinicians

For further information or to book a place, please contact:

Chiara Macor
NIHR/Wellcome Trust Cambridge Clinical Research Centre
Box 127
Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
chiara.macor@addenbrookes.nhs.uk

This course is designed for trainees who are not (yet) research active but are interested in meeting curriculum requirements relating to research skills and knowledge.

The course is provided by clinicians for clinicians and consists of a programme of talks, practical exercises and worked examples.

Commissioned by NHS Health Education East of England, the course is available at the subsidised fee of £135 for trainees in the East of England.