

Living in the East of England

The region

The East of England region covers the entirety of Essex, Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridgeshire, Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire. With a population of almost six million across both urban and rural areas, it provides a wide variety of training experiences and easy access to locations including Birmingham and London.

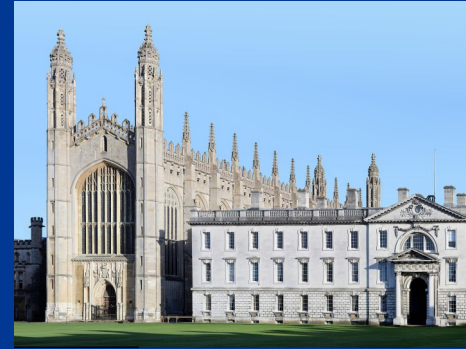

“It is a deanery where people seem to know who you are rather than just being an anonymous name!”

Essex

Bordering London, Suffolk, Cambridgeshire and the ocean, Essex offers a fantastic experience to live and study in the East of England. With a wide variety of rural and urban postings, positions in Essex are an excellent chance to experience a bit of both worlds!

Cambridgeshire

Cambridgeshire is defined by the city from which it takes its name, one of the foremost educational centres in the world. And it does not slack when it comes to medical education. But, even beyond that, Cambridgeshire has so much to offer in terms of quality of life.

Norfolk & Suffolk

Norfolk and Suffolk offer the opportunity for you to combine an exciting career with a quality lifestyle. Whilst mostly rural areas, the cities it does have are the equal of any other, offering easy access to London and many other regions!

Bedfordshire & Hertfordshire

With a mix of both rural and urban areas, located conveniently close to London, Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire is perfect for trainees who want a bit of culture or just to enjoy the natural beauty of the countryside
