

Teaching and Learning Fellow

Health Education England East of England (HEE EoE) are pleased to announce a new opportunity to become a Teaching and Learning Fellow to support the Blended Learning Project. HEE EoE is committed to providing outstanding opportunities for regional training, ensuring it is accessible to all trainees.

The role of the Teaching and Learning Fellow is to support the development of resources for their specialty on the HEE EoE online learning platform (Panopto/Bridge). The Teaching and Learning Fellow will work with the faculty support team, Education Fellow coordinating the online learning platform, consultants, SAS doctors, LEDs, trainees and other stakeholders.

The role is suitable to those who are passionate about teaching and have lots of design flair and passion for web-design/e-learning design; and are looking to expand on their current skillset.

We invite trainees to join us for one year; successful candidates will be expected to start post in February 2021. Training in building and designing content will be provided.

If you are interested in this exciting opportunity, please complete a short expression of interest form (attached) and return it to blended.learning.eoe@hee.nhs.uk

Please ensure you familiarise yourself with candidate profile (attached).

Important dates:

- Trainees interested in becoming Teaching and Learning Fellow are invited to attend introduction webinar at 6pm on 15th December 2020
- Closing date for submitting expression of interest 4pm on 30th December 2020
- Candidates will be advised of outcomes by 15th January 2021
- Two weeks online training course 1st February – 12th February 2021
