

Turner-Warwick lecturer scheme 2019

We're pleased to announce that applications are now open for the Turner-Warwick lecturer scheme for trainees in the Eastern region.

Traditionally, presentations at the regional Update in Medicine conferences have been delivered by consultants. For 2019 the RCP again plans to appoint a lecturer from the trainees in each region. The lecture will be given at the regional Update in Medicine conferences.

The Eastern Update in Medicine conference will take place on 28 June 2019, more details will be available closer to the time.

Eligibility

Trainee physicians at CMT, ACCS-AM or ST3-7 (or equivalent) can apply and should not be expecting to complete training (ie obtain their CCT) before the date of the regional Update in Medicine (28 June 2019).

If you are a consultant physician, please consider encouraging trainees to apply.

How to apply

Applicants need to submit an abstract relating to the subject of the proposed lecture, which should be based on work in one of the following areas:

- clinical research
- successful quality improvement programme
- achievements in medical education.

The closing date for applications is: 27 January 2019 at 11.59pm.

PLEASE CONTACT gill.brown@rcplondon.ac.uk, 01858 465944 for further details on the application process.
